New Guidelines on Double Representation: The QPAREB Takes Notice

L'Île-des-Sœurs, October 20, 2023 - The Quebec Professional Association of Real Estate Brokers (QPAREB) takes notice of the new guidelines announced at yesterday's annual event of the Organisme d'autoréglementation du courtage immobilier du Québec (OACIQ), concerning the representation of buyers and sellers within the same real estate brokerage team.

Every year, nearly 100,000 real estate transactions are successfully completed across the province. In 2023, almost all consumers were satisfied with their dealings with a broker, according to a Léger satisfaction survey. Real estate brokers are honest, dedicated and competent. These professionals are committed to providing personalized support and service throughout the real estate transaction.

In today's complex real estate market, the real estate broker profession is more relevant and essential than ever. It is a serious, credible and professional industry that is essential to Québec's economic vitality.
